

Press Release

Illinois Association of Mortgage Brokers names Capital Financial Bancorp Inc. MORTGAGE BROKER OF THE YEAR.

February, 2007, Oak Brook, Illinois.

The Illinois Association of Mortgage Brokers held their 11th annual Industry Awards ceremony on February 17th. Now in their eleventh year, the Industry Awards, widely regarded as the equivalent to Hollywood's Oscars, recognizes the contributions and successes of lenders, mortgage companies and their affiliates. Nearly 700 nominations were securitized to decide which companies really were the "cream of the crop". Capital Financial Bancorp Inc. was named Mortgage Broker of the Year.

"Market conditions in the mortgage industry have certainly become more challenging in recent months, so the timing of this award comes with great enthusiasm and pride." Brian Augustine, CRMS.

Capital Financial Bancorp Inc opened its doors in 1996 with their goal being to have every customer's mortgage handled with the utmost care from open to close. Their shared vision was to make the entire lending process seamless and comfortable. They believed, then and today, that if they put my customers' needs before the dollars they earn – they would all be more successful.

Their success is paying off big time. They have recently moved into a new office space – doubling their size. Their plans are to focus on stay at the forefront of industry knowledge, provide the best in mortgage solutions for their customers and encourage their loan originators to be leaders in the mortgage industry. They are hoping to double their team to provide additional products, services and capabilities in the coming year.

"It's a pleasure to receive this type of award, particularly when that is decided upon by the industry itself." Tory Tarsitano, CRMS.
